HAPPY THANKSGIVING

Have you been out shopping lately? The stores are filled with Christmas items. My families been asking me what I want for Christmas for the last 2 months. How about we all slow down? Pump our breaks and remember all the stuff in between November 1 and December 31. You know Veterans Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, Christmas, New Years Eve.

This November, I challenge you to do something good because you want to. I once read a quote that said “I can do good because I want to not to ‘give back’. I didn’t take anything.” That Quote has really resonated with me. It puts perspective on Thanksgiving. Don’t go out and cook a turkey, serve Thanksgiving dinner or any other act of kindness, because you want to “give back.” Do it because you want to do something good for the world. Do it because you want to share with the world the light that you see in it, as opposed to the darkness that others see in it. Do good because you want to Do Good, and not because you want to give back... you didn’t take anything.

Our thoughts and prayers go out to all the families of the tragedies of the world, including the recent tragedy in Pittsburgh. Let’s be the light that we want to see in the world. This Thanksgiving do something good because you want to. Not because I’m asking you to, but because in your heart you want to make this world a better place. It starts with one act of kindness at a time.

“Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love.” And “Peace begins with a smile...” – Mother Teresa

Tip of the Month – What’s your Triage Plan?

Recently, I was at the hospital with a family member. She was shopping at a local grocery store and she passed out, fell to the ground, and hit her head. A Clerk at the store called 911, the EMTs arrived and began treating her. She was then taken to the hospital. My mom called me and asked me to meet her at the hospital. While we waiting to find out what was going on, I noticed that the hospital/emergency department had a system that they followed each time a patient came into the ER.

First, they listed to the complaints and problem from the patient – Identify. Second, they made a determination on what they believed was wrong with the patient based on the information provided and ordering a series of tests for the patient to go through – Assessment. Third, they analyzed the tests results and put together a plan of action – Implementation. In other words, they Identified the problem; made an Assessment on what the problem was; and Implemented the plan.

Do you have a Triage System for dealing with family emergencies? What about for your children?

Who’s going to be there for you in the event that you are unable to make medical decisions?

What about your financial affairs? Bills getting paid, lights staying on, family lifestyle preserved.

What is your long-term care plan?

As the Thanksgiving and Holiday Season kicks off, we would like to offer our clients a Free Healthcare Power of Attorney as the first step in getting your affairs in order.

Here’s how it works ... we are limiting the Free Healthcare Power of Attorney to the first 20 registrants. To Qualify, (i) you must be a past or current client; (ii) you must request a Free Estate Plan Review; and (iii) give us the name of two of your personal friends who could benefit from a Free copy of the Ohio Estate Planning Secrets.

Once you do, we’ll send you a Free copy of our Ohio Estate Planning Secrets and the best ways to Legally Protect your Assets guides. And then we’ll schedule a day and time to go over your Free Estate Plan Review and complete your Healthcare Power of Attorney.

RECIPE OF THE MONTH – CHICKEN CHILI – HEALTHY ALTERNATIVE

INGREDIENTS:

- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 medium onion, minced
- 3 cloves Garlic, minced
- .75 pound chick breast, cut into small bite sized pieces
- 1 pound fresh tomatoes, small dice
- 3 ounces of tomato paste
- 1 cup water
- 2 tablespoons chili powder
- 2 teaspoons ground cumin
- 1 teaspoon paprika
- ½ teaspoon dried oregano
- 1 teaspoon kosher salt
- 15 ounces canned black beans, drained
- 2 stalks celery
- 1 large bell pepper, small dice (I like yellow/orange for color)

Directions:

1. Heat a large pan, add oil, minced onions and garlic. Cook until they're soft.
2. Add chicken, cook chicken until it becomes white on the outside. Add fresh tomatoes, tomato paste, water, chili powder, cumin, paprika, oregano, and salt. Stir to combine well, then allow it to come to a simmer. Cook for about 2 minutes.
3. Add black beans, celery, and bell pepper. Stir to combine well. If it's too thick, add a little more water.
4. Bring to a boil, then immediately lower heat and bring to a low simmer.
5. Continue simmering the chili for about 20-30 minutes, stirring occasionally, for the flavors to combine.
6. Keep cooking the chili until it becomes your desired consistency.

Enjoy! This delicious Fresh, Healthy Chili.
